

GRAMMARIAN

EDITORIAL

This is our last Magazine but one and we have again tried very hard to set a good standard both in the lay-out and in the material we have chosen to print.

It was a very difficult business to persuade the school to contribute eagerly but the faithful have again not disappointed us.

Our grateful thanks must go to Mr. Pegram who piloted the whole enterprise and also to Messrs. Sell and Harkness who had charge of the illustrations.

P. Brown and P. Wolter.
