

Hemingford Road: House Histories. 1

Odd Numbers: 1-129

First owner of plot - Date Built - Original Building Plan - First Recorded Occupiers

Allan Brigham: 2012

To Show

1. Development per Plot Owner - House or group of houses that were built, with picture of house or group in 2012. The Plot Owner & Builder were often, but always, not the same person.
 2. Portrait Pictures: Residents who were living in each house or group of houses in 2012.
 - House number shown for those not available to be photographed.
 3. Year Built. Dates shown are:
 - Building Plan
 - First evidence that house has been built, normally from Census or Street Directories.
 4. First Owner of plot, and Owner of plot when built, if known.
 5. Original Building Plans: Source Cambridgeshire Record Office (CRO).
 6. House Pictures: Each house, with information about occupier from Street Directory (Head of Household or 'Garden'), or first recorded Census.

A work in progress:

This was written as a book for the 'Hemingford & Romsey Roads Street Party' in 2012. My thanks to everyone who spoke to me, and to those who invited me into their houses and their lives, especially Jean Turner, Margaret Squires, Brian Thompson, and the Nightingale family. I'm very grateful for help from the staff at Romsey Mill, The Cambridgeshire Collection, to Mike Petty, and to the staff at Cambridgeshire Archives who have only recently archived the early Building Plans and who could not have been more helpful. I am indebted to Hemingford Road resident Soo Martin for turning my photographs of the plans into images everyone can enjoy.

Neither the early Census returns nor the Building Plans were given street numbers. I have hopefully ascribed the correct Census details or Plan to the right house, but I may be wrong. An updated copy of this book will be deposited in The Cambridgeshire Collection.

Photos: Left: 'A picture of my great grand parents standing outside 127 with my grandfather, around 1902. The front wall still has the railings and iron gate. I was born in 1951 at 26 Romsey Road, and then we moved to 127 Hemingford Road in 1961 to what was the family house. My father was born in the house in 1920 so had a lot of connection with Hemingford Road. My father and mother lived at 127 till late 1987 when they moved to Bottisham'. Peter Nightingale: 2012.
