Mill Road History Society Street Directory Project

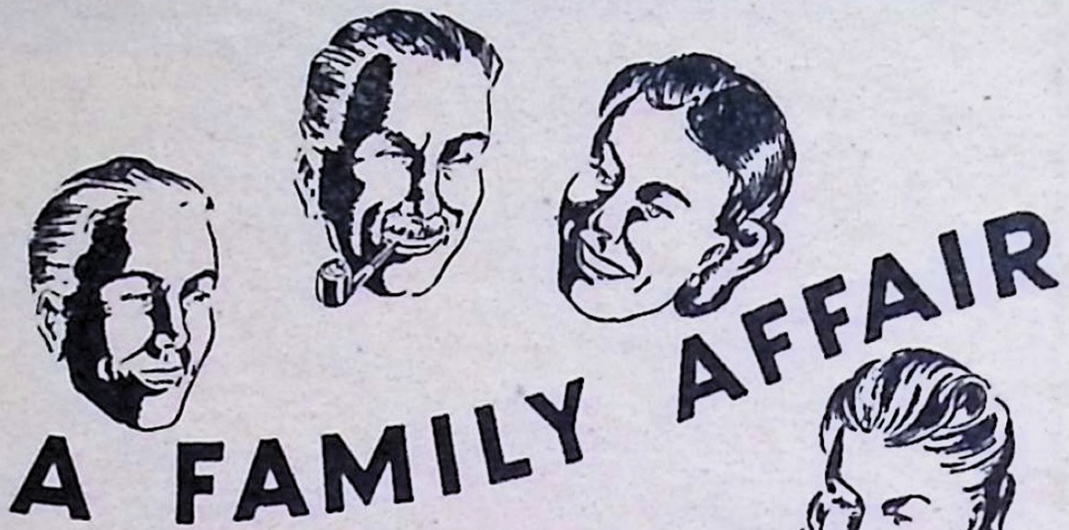

In 2026 the Mill Road History Society started a project to scan the street directories for Cambridgeshire and make them freely available to all. This book is part of that project.

If you find any pages missing or unreadable then please email directories@millroadhistory.org.uk and we will correct the problem if we can.

Scanned with the CZUR ET24 Book Scanner.

THE CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETY is very much a family affair. Ever since young John was waving a rattle in his pram he has been fed and clothed, warmed and nourished, by Co-operative purchases. Everything the family has needed—from fish paste to furniture—has been obtained from the Cambridge and District Co-operative Society.

The Dividend from those purchases has now accumulated into a tidy sum in the Share Capital Account, and from time to time the family savings have been added. The highly favourable rate in interest in Share and Loan Accounts make saving well worth while.

If YOU are not a member, join the Society NOW. Any of our branch managers will be pleased to answer your questions.

Last year over £103,000 was paid or credited to our members as Dividend on purchases. Tangible proof that it pays to shop at the Co-operative.

THE CAMBRIDGE DIRECTORY C O M M E R C I A L

EXPLANATION.

It may sometimes happen that a user of this Directory knows the address of a certain person, but does not know exactly where the street in which that person lives is situated. In such a case reference should be made to the Cambridge Street Directory. Thus, anyone knowing that George Trowell, boot repairer, lives at 108 Mill road can, by turning to the Cambridge Street Directory, page 169, find from it that Mill road runs from East road to Brookfields.

The telephone exchange, except where otherwise stated, is Cambridge.

Early closing day, Thursday.

THE CAMBRIDGE DIRECTORY PRIVATE RESIDENTS

EXPLANATION.

It may sometimes happen that a user of this Directory knows the address of a certain person but does not know exactly where the street in which that person lives is situated. In such a case reference should be made to Cambridge Street Directory. Thus, anyone knowing that Thomas William Allen lives at 1 Vinery road can, by turning to the Cambridge Street Directory, page 283, find from it that Vinery road runs from 299 Mill road to Coldham's lane.
