Mill Road History Society Street Directory Project

In 2026 the Mill Road History Society started a project to scan the street directories for Cambridgeshire and make them freely available to all. This book is part of that project.

If you find any pages missing or unreadable then please email directories@millroadhistory.org.uk and we will correct the problem if we can.

Scanned with the CZUR ET24 Book Scanner.

THE CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETY is very much a family affair. Since young John was waving a rattle in his pram he has been fed and clothed, warmed and nourished by Co-operative purchases. Everything the family needs has been obtained from Cambridge & District Co-operative Society.

Now the dividend from those purchases has accumulated into a tidy sum and from time to time the family savings have been added to the share and loan accounts. The very attractive rates of interest make saving worth while.

If you are not a member join the Society now. Any of our Branch Managers will be pleased to answer your questions.

"Here's to Thee, Bacon!"

"There must be rejoicing at Cambridge at the re-opening of BACON'S, the famous University tobacco shop, with its motto from CALVERLEY as before, and a plaque bust of CALVERLEY, which is new. BACON'S does well to remember CALVERLEY, for it was through him and his ode to tobacco that its name became familiar among tribes far remote from the Cam. . . . The history of Bacon's, as it can be read in the old books of the business, illustrates clearly the changes which have come over the practice of smoking. . . . Fusees, too, in those days were common—and admirable things they were for lighting up in a high wind ; 'strike high the loud fusee !' sang an Oxford rhymester not long after the future KING EDWARD was ordering Vesuviuses of BACON. . . . The truth is that Bacon's is so old a business that it has outlived the romantic period of its wares . . . it was largely through BACON, and his illustrious customers at Cambridge, that the struggle for the recognition of tobacco, which, like the successive Reform Acts at length led to the enfranchisement of everybody, was given, at a critical period, a decisive turn."

EXPLANATION.

It may sometimes happen that a user of this Directory knows the address of a certain person, but does not know exactly where the street in which that person lives is situated. In such a case reference should be made to the Cambridge Street Directory. Thus, anyone knowing that Lionel J. Abbott, draper, lives at 208 Mill road can, by turning to the Cambridge Street Directory, page 162, find from it that Mill road runs from East road to Brookfields.

The telephone exchange, except where otherwise stated, is Cambridge.

THE CAMBRIDGE DIRECTORY PRIVATE RESIDENTS

EXPLANATION.

It may sometimes happen that a user of this Directory knows the address of a certain person but does not know exactly where the street in which that person lives is situated. In such a case reference should be made to Cambridge Street Directory. Thus, anyone knowing that Thomas William Allen lives at 1 Vinery road can, by turning to the Cambridge Street Directory, page 273, find from it that Vinery road runs from 299 Mill road to Coldham's lane.
