Mill Road History Society Street Directory Project

In 2026 the Mill Road History Society and the Museum of Cambridge started a project to scan the street directories for Cambridgeshire and make them freely available to all. This book is part of that project.

If you find any pages missing or unreadable then please email directories@millroadhistory.org.uk and we will correct the problem if we can.

Scanned with the CZUR ET24 Book Scanner.

Wholesale and Retail

WINE AND SPIRIT MERCHANTS, PETTY CURY & GUILDHALL STREET, CAMBRIDGE.

CLARETS.—We purchase direct from the first growers and shippers of the Médoc, thus the intermediate profits both in France and England are avoided, and the result is guaranteed Pure Wines at moderate prices. Recent good Vintages have given us an abundance of excellent Wine to select from.

BURGUNDIES.—Exceptional value, especially in the lower and medium price Wines.

HOCKS and MOSELLES.—All good sound Wines, guaranteed to be pure unblended products of their respective districts.

SHERRIES.—We have always given particular attention to this famous and generous Wine, which in its natural state is a most wholesome and refreshing drink. Our "Club" Sherry is highly recommended.

PORTS.—For some years past we have devoted much attention to the maturing of Ports by long storage in the wood, such Wines being so much more suitable than old-bottled Wines to persons of weak digestion. Our stock of old-bottled Ports is very large, and comprises all the best Shipper's Wines; also every grade of quality and style. We therefore feel able to suit any taste.

AUSTRALIAN WINES.—We have some delicious Wines of our own shipping, and supply them both in bottles and flagons.

MARSALAS.—Owing to the extensiveness of our purchases, we are enabled to offer good Wines at extremely moderate prices.

CHAMPAGNES.—The "popular" brands of Champagnes of good Vintages are dearer than ever; indeed, the prices of some are such as to place them out of the reach of all but the very wealthy. We have met with great success in our endeavour to supply fine Champagne at moderate prices, without reference to brand; and we are offering Wines carefully selected from the Stocks of some of the best growers of Reims and Epernay, which we submit, with the utmost confidence, for comparison with Champagnes at least 20 per cent. higher in price.

SCOTCH WHISKIES.—The large and increasing sale of the celebrated makes and blends we offer, we take as a proof of their thorough genuineness, which we guarantee. Special attention is drawn to our "Famous Old Glenlivet Blend;" this Whisky has that pure mellow flavour which results from age and judicious blending of Whiskies distilled from the finest malt. Its fine flavour and choice character will recommend it to Connoisseurs.

BRANDIES.—Our *, , and  qualities we specially recommend, and confidently solicit a comparison of quality and price with similar marks of other shippers. As to Fine Champagne and Old Liqueur Brandies, we really think we hold some of the finest procurable

PREFACE.

August, 1895.

THE present issue of the Street and General Directory of Cambridge has been compiled, in the first instance, by the Senior Letter Carriers in the Local Postal Service. Their copy has been carefully revised (in several instances most kindly by the Clergy), and every effort that a considerable amount of experience could suggest has been made to ensure correctness. The Publisher regrets that the rush of work in connection with the General Election has somewhat delayed the publication of the Directory, but trusts that the general accuracy of the book may be considered satisfactory by the Subscribers, through whose support alone a list of every permanent resident in Cambridge is issued.

The Publisher gratefully acknowledges the assistance he has received from University and Town Authorities.

REMOVALS.

BY ROAD.

CAMBRIDGE TO LONDON.

F. Osmond-Carr, Esq., Mus.D.

I was exceedingly pleased with the careful and efficient manner in which our removal was effected.

BY RAIL.

CAMBRIDGE TO MANCHESTER.

The Hon. and
Rev. A. T. Lyttelton, M.A.

I wish to express my sense of the admirable manner in which you moved my furniture. Your men were most civil and obliging throughout.

BY SEA.

CAMBRIDGE TO BERLIN.

F. Ransom, Esq., M.D.

Many thanks for the care and trouble you took to get everything so safely removed.

BOROUGH OF CAMBRIDGE.

For Corrections.

In addition to the following information respecting the Borough of Cambridge, it may be interesting to state that the Municipal Borough and area of the Cambridge Sanitary Authority is co-terminus with the Boundaries of the Borough, whilst the Parliamentary Borough comprises both New and the greater part of Old Chesterton. According to the very interesting Year Book compiled for the Corporation by the Town Clerk, the population of the Municipal Borough in 1891 was 36,983, and its rateable value at Michaelmas, 1894, £217,005. There are 7,878 inhabited houses in the Borough, and the Corporation have 3.4 miles of roads under their control. Of the 3,278 acres of which the Borough consists, no less than 286 acres are Common Lands. Omitting fractional parts of an acre, our open spaces are of the following dimensions:—Coldham's Common, 98 acres; Stourbridge Green, 42 acres; Midsummer Green (or Jesus Green), 57 acres; Butt Green, 7 acres; Parker's Piece, 20 acres; Land between Parker's Piece and East Road, 4 acres; Land between Mill Road and Queen Anne Terrace, 3 acres; Land between Mill Road and Zion Place, 2 acres; Queens' Green, 4 acres; Laundress Green, 3 r. 2 p.; Sheep's Green, 22 acres; Coe Fen, 13 acres; Coe Fen Straits, 1 acre; New Bit, 4 acres, and Empty Common, 5 acres. In addition to these, there are, of course, the many open spaces connected with the College squares and ground. At the present time there are 7,796 Parliamentary Electors on the Register, and 7,341 upon the Burgess Roll. The present Wards of the Municipal Borough were settled after a local enquiry in 1893, and the University first became entitled to six University Councillors and two University Aldermen under the Local Government Act of 1888.

CAMBRIDGE PUBLIC FREE LIBRARY.

Was first opened in 1855, as a reference library only. In 1858 a lending library for adults was established; two years later newspapers and magazines were supplied to the reading room; in 1872, a juvenile library was begun, and the Barnwell Branch was first opened in 1875. The Central Library contains 35,000 volumes.

THE READING ROOMS are open to the public between the hours of 10 a.m. and 9.30 p.m.

THE LENDING LIBRARIES are open from 11 to 2, and from 6 to 9.

The Reference Library and Reading Rooms are open for the free use of all persons over fourteen years of age, subject to the Rules and Regulations.

Every person over eight years of age living in the Municipal Borough has the right to borrow books from the Lending Library, but each person must first get a voucher signed by a ratepayer (whose name appears on the Burgess List) and a borrower's ticket. Persons living in the Cambridge County Council area may borrow books upon payment of 5/- for a borrower's ticket.

Copies of the Rules and the Borrower's Voucher may be had free upon application to the Librarian.

BARNWELL BRANCH, EAST ROAD.

Open daily from 10 till 2.30 and 5 till 9.30.

This Branch Library comprises a Reading Room and Lending Library.

The Reading Room is supplied with Daily and Weekly Newspapers, Magazines, and a small Reference Library.

There are about 6,000 volumes in the Lending Library, and a selection of books for the use of juvenile readers. Borrowers can transfer their tickets to the Central Lending Library, or borrow such books as are not in the Barnwell Branch.

NEW BRANCH LIBRARY ON MILL ROAD.

On the first of May, 1891, the Guardians of the Cambridge Union conveyed to the Corporation a piece of land on the Mill Road for the purpose of erecting a building for a Branch Library. On the 4th of June following, the Council authorised the Library Committee to obtain plans and to report as to the best means of carrying out the undertaking. Plans were prepared by Mr. Frank Waters and approved by the Library Committee, and his estimate of the cost of the building was £1,300. This, together with the necessary outlay on fittings and commission, will probably amount to about £1,600. In order that the committee might proceed with the building in the course of the year 1895, they asked the Council for authority to obtain working plans and estimates for the erection of the Library from among the builders residing in the town. They also asked that the powers given in the 27th Section of the Cambridge University and Corporation Act of 1894, be put into operation, and that for this special purpose a rate of twopence in the pound be granted for a period not exceeding two years, in lieu of the penny rate usually granted for the purposes of the Library, and the Town Council agreed to these suggestions on October 18th, 1894. The first additional rate for this purpose was made by the Council on the 9th November, 1894.

1. CAMBRIDGE DIRECTORY—OFFICIAL INFORMATION.

REGULATIONS AS TO LETTING THE GUILDHALL, CAMBRIDGE,

For Corrections.

As revised by the Town Council, 10th November, 1879.

1. The Mayor or his deputy has the exclusive privilege of granting the use of the Assembly Rooms, the Aldermen's Parlour, the Council Chamber, and the Court Hall, in the Guildhall.

In the Appendix (A.B.C.D.E.) is stated the amount to be paid in each case:

- (i.) to the Borough Fund.
- (ii.) for lighting.
- (iii.) to the hallkeeper.
- (iv.) as deposit for protection of the structure, furniture, &c.

such several sums to be paid to the Treasurer.

2. Rent will be charged for the use of the rooms for every night they are occupied by scenery or any stage appliances. N.B.—No fit up is now allowed in the Guildhall.

3. Rooms may be engaged provisionally; such engagement not to be extended beyond one week. A fee of five shillings will be charged for every day on which a room is thus engaged, which fee will be forfeited unless the room is ultimately hired, and if hired, allowed on account of the future rent.

4. When the rooms are actually engaged, the payments on account thereof must be made.

5. In all cases where any room is desired to be engaged more than four months in advance, the special permission of the Mayor or his deputy shall be obtained.

6. The charge for lighting will be remitted in those cases in which lighting is not requisite.

7. The fee to the hallkeeper includes charges for firing and stationery. As regards balls the hallkeeper is to have in every case the fee for two days.

8. The deposit for protection of the structure, furniture, &c., will be returned so soon as it has been ascertained that no damage has arisen, or in case of damage having occurred, so much thereof as may not be required to reinstate the structure, furniture, &c., will be returned after such reinstatement.

9. The Mayor or his deputy has power to dispense with a deposit in any particular case.

10. Payment to the Borough Fund will be required in all cases in which pecuniary profit is sought to be obtained by the use of the hall, in other cases the Mayor shall have the power to remit the Borough Fund.

11. The permission to use any apartment will be given by a licence according to the form (F.) in the Appendix.

12. The Mayor's licence is to be delivered to the Treasurer, who on receipt of the requisite sums, and on the party obtaining the licence signing an undertaking according to the form (G.) in the Appendix, will give an order to the hallkeeper, according to the form (H.) in the Appendix.

13. These regulations are not applicable to meetings of the Improvement Commissioners, the Commissioners of Taxes, the Charity Trustees, and other similar public bodies.

NATIONAL SOCIETY FOR THE PREVENTION OF CRUELTY TO CHILDREN.

CAMBRIDGE AND SOUTH CAMBRIDGESHIRE BRANCH.

President:

T. CLIFFORD ALLBUTT, Esq., M.D., F.R.S., Regius Professor of Physic.

THIS Branch, formed in 1892, has since first commencing work with a trained Officer, dealt with over 200 cases in the Town and County, affecting the welfare of some 400 children, many of them quite infants. Some were found in lonely country cottages, or lone ten dwellings, left uncared for, filthy, hungry, their sobs unheeded, unheard. Children beaten with pokers, ropes, sticks, belts, or lying on heaps of foul rags. Children with bruised limbs, half-naked, wandering footsore and weary from place to place in foul vermin-infested rags. Children who to escape ill-treatment preferred to sleep in railway goods trucks, on doorsteps, sheds, and even in pigstyes. Babies with drunken mothers, whose sole thought was not to satisfy the infant's hunger, but their own unnatural craving for drink. The Society recognises no Creed or Politics in its welfare for children, its sole idea is to secure that every little child within the Queen's Dominions has full recognition of its natural and legal rights.

The Society is not a Prosecuting Society, and in no sense "a Charity." It does not seek to weaken or remove parental responsibility and liability; but seeks to prevent the public and private wrongs of children, and the corruption of their morals, and to enforce and obtain adequate laws and suitable administration of laws on their behalf.

Yearly Subscriptions are due on the 1st of November, and should be sent to one of the Treasurers:—

Mrs. BURN, St. Chad's, Cambridge; Miss BOWES, 18, Park Terrace, Cambridge.

Or may be paid to the account of the Society at the Banks of Messrs. MORTLOCK & CO., or Messrs. FOSTER & Co., Cambridge.

Complaints of Cruelty to Children should be addressed to E. S. SHUCKBURGH, Esq., 17, Sussex Street.

Inspector H. Walker, who is in residence there, is usually at home from 1 to 3, and 6 to 8.

Anyone interested in the Society's work can always have literature explanatory of the work forwarded free.
