Mill Road History Society Street Directory Project

In 2026 the Mill Road History Society and the Museum of Cambridge started a project to scan the street directories for Cambridgeshire and make them freely available to all. This book is part of that project.

If you find any pages missing or unreadable then please email directories@millroadhistory.org.uk and we will correct the problem if we can.

PREFACE.

43, SIDNEY STREET,
CAMBRIDGE.

For the first time since the Directory of Cambridge was started in 1875, it has this year to be issued without having been edited by its founder, William Potter Spalding, who, as probably most of the subscribers to the book are already aware, died on March 21st, 1916. It was a work in which he took a particular and personal interest, and in the present book I have followed on the lines he has laid down.

Another change, necessitated by the circumstances of the times, has also been made in connection with the preparation of the present issue, in that most of the house to house visiting has been carried out by women. As far as I can judge, they have done the work quite satisfactorily, and I trust this opinion will be confirmed by users of the book during the coming year.

Cambridge continues to suffer acutely from the effects of the war, which has withdrawn the majority of the members of the University from the Town, one of the results being seen in the abnormally large number of empty houses in some parts of the Borough.

I take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to all who have so readily given me their help in obtaining the information for the Directory, a help which many have frequently given on former occasions to my Father.

ALEX. A. SPALDING.

CHESHUNT COLLEGE.

The College was founded in 1768 by Selina, Countess of Huntingdon, to train men for the Ministry of the Protestant Evangelical Churches. It was removed to Cheshunt in 1792 and remained there until 1905, becoming a Divinity School of the University of London. Under a new Scheme of Government drawn up by the Board of Education it migrated to Cambridge in 1905, in order that its students might become members of the University and have the benefit of the University teaching here. Its Governing Body is representative of many interests, and the Students have free choice as to the Churches in which they shall serve after leaving the College.

New College Buildings have been erected at the Brookside end of Bateman Street, with Library, Dining Hall, etc., rooms for twenty students, and Tutor's House. The foundation stone was laid by the Lord Chancellor in June, 1913.

"A Dainty Display.

A feature of the exhibit which the Chiswick Polish Company have erected at the Crystal Palace is the excellent display of footgear which the Company are making to demonstrate the advantage of using their specialities. The various specimens are tastefully arranged in glass cases on either side of the entrance to the 'House of Commons.' They comprise an excellent collection of hunting, racing, and polo boots, walking boots, and shoes in various styles, and also a smart pair of officer's dress Wellingtons, all of which have been specially made by the well-known firm of FRANK DALTON and Co., of Cambridge and Premier House, 48, Dover Street, W. Better examples of British Craftsmanship it would be impossible to see, and it is clear that no expense has been spared by the Company to obtain the very finest goods whereon to display their wares. Messrs. DALTON cater largely for University wearers, and have only departed from their customary methods at the express wish of the proprietors of "Cherry Blossom." Some of the latest additions to the display have been submitted to us for inspection, and it is only doing them justice to say that they embody the finest material and workmanship the most exacting wearer could desire. The Chiswick Polish Company have shown even more than their customary enterprise in obtaining for the purpose of their display at the Festival of Empire footgear of such a distinctive character."
